J. S. BHATNAGAR*Deputy Director (Admn.)for Development Commissioner (SSI)MINISTRY OF STEEL, MINES AND METALS*(Department of Iron and Steel)*Iron and Steel Control*PUBLIC NOTICECalcutta-1, the 21st November 1968*

SUB : Submission of applications for import of Iron & Steel and Ferro Alloys.

No. 78/IP(PN)/68.—It has been observed that, while submitting applications for import licence or while addressing indigenous producers/Joint Plant Committee for non-availability certificates, applicants do not indicate in their applications/enquiries, the Indian Standard Specifications or the nearest Indian Standard Specifications, where these are available. As a result, different units are found to be applying for steel materials of different specifications of foreign standards, for the same end use, although relevant I.S.I. specifications are generally available therefor.

2. It has, therefore, been decided that, while submitting import licence applications or while addressing the indigenous producers/Joint Plant Committee for non-availability certificates, the applicants shall henceforward indicate the Indian Standard Specifications or their nearest equivalent specifications, where available, along with American, British, German and other foreign specifications and that the indigenous producers/Joint Plant Committee shall also follow the same procedure while replying to their enquiries.
